Located in the peaceful rural area of La Alberquilla, just 10 minutes from Pinoso, this charming, fully renovated semi-detached country property offers a wonderful combination of space, tranquillity and beautiful surroundings. The house offers approximately 266m² of living space, comprising 4 bedrooms and 2 bathrooms. The property was previously operated as a rural guest house (casa rural), making it an excellent opportunity as a family home, holiday retreat or potential tourism investment. In addition, there is a generous 70m² storage area (bodega), offering plenty of space for storage, a workshop or further development, depending on your needs. The property sits on a substantial 4,000m² plot, providing plenty of outdoor space and enjoying lovely open views across the surrounding countryside. The house has electricity and mains water and has been completely renovated, allowing you to move in without the need for major renovation work. An ideal property for anyone looking for peace, space, privacy and authentic Spanish countryside living, while remaining just a short drive from Pinoso and its amenities. A property full of character and potential – definitely worth viewing!
